

Welcome to Trinity Church!

We are glad you are here! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Commons after the 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. services. If you're new to Trinity, we invite you to fill out the welcome card located in the back of the pew or at the Welcome Table during coffee hour. Also, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy or a parishioner wearing a "Trinity Welcome" button following the service.

Good Friday

Stations of the City

April 6, 3:15–5:15 pm, meet on the Copley steps

Join this pilgrimage through our neighborhood's streets, pausing for reflection at the places where our homeless brothers and sisters seek their basic necessities.

A Musical Meditation on Christ's Passion

April 6, 5:30 pm, in the Church

The Choirs of Trinity Church will sing a selection of chants, carols, and anthems, including "Lo, the full, final sacrifice" by Gerald Finzi and "Miserere Mei" by Gregorio Allegri. Admission is free. A good-will offering of $10 is suggested.

Good Friday Lock-in for YAC

Good Friday, April 6, after services

Youth are invited to the annual Good Friday overnight. Come for an evening of worship, food, music, games, and fellowship. On Saturday morning, you will help the Robert Treat Paine Society and the Flower Guild get the church ready for Easter services. The cost to cover all food and activities is only $20.

Inquirers' Class Begins April 14

Please register by Monday, April 9

This course explores the fundamentals of the Christian faith and the Anglican tradition. Those new to the Episcopal Church, those who want to learn more about its components, or those who simply wish to refresh their understanding are encouraged to participate. It is also a wonderful class to take for personal enrichment and spiritual nourishment. Classes run Sundays, April 15 through May 20, from 1:00 to 3:00 pm in the Forum. A retreat on Saturday, May 5, is required for all. This is also the required course for those interested in Confirmation, Reaffirmation, or Reception, which will take place on Saturday, May 12.

Trinity Forum: Discernment—Being Attentive to the Voice of God

Sunday, April 15, 10:15 am, in the Forum

Bill Rich will lead us in this introduction to the upcoming Wednesday night series "Discernment and Talents." He'll discuss the theology of "discernment," a classic term in Christian theology for the spiritual practice of learning how better to discern where the voice and presence of God are in the midst of the myriad voices that bombard us. For more information about the Wednesday night series, which runs April 25 through May 30, please pick up the April/May 2007 issue of Trinity News or visit www.trinitychurchboston.org.

Fill the Forum with Art & the Spirit

Friday–Sunday, April 20–22, in the Forum

Trinity will host "Art & the Spirit," an exhibit of work created by parishioners. Amateurs and professionals, children and adults – all are invited to submit art for display. All forms of fine arts are welcome, including, but not limited to, painting, drawing, sculpture, and photography. Art for display must be received on Sunday, April 15, between 1:00 and 5:00 pm, in the Parish House.
