ANNUAL MINISTRY REPORT 2017

TRINITY CHURCH IN THE CITY OF BOSTON

For the parish of Trinity Church, 2017 will be remembered as a year of transition, as our leader, the Rev. Sam Lloyd, and the parish began the process to find a new rector. In his sermon on the occasion of Sam's retirement, Bishop Gates exhorted us to "show up," "step up," and "look up" — and the people of Trinity have done so, as illustrated in the facts, quotes, and stories in this Annual Ministry Report show.

With gratitude for all God's goodness to Trinity in the past, and with confident hope in God's guidance into an exciting new future, we are discovering the joy of where God is at work in us, with us, and through us.

Showing Up

We are showing up at Church to keep God at the center of our lives — through worship, formation, fellowship, and by engaging in ministries at even greater numbers than in 2016.

Stepping Up

We are stepping up as disciples of Christ, with more people taking on leadership roles in ministries throughout our life, by putting our faith into action throughout the city through our participation in outreach, and in trying new ways to be a vibrant, thriving church.

Looking Up

We are looking up to see and follow where the Spirit is at work in Trinity and beyond, throughout our life together.

WITH THANKS TO GOD
FOR THE PEOPLE OF TRINITY CHURCH.
