

Welcome to Trinity Church

Whether you have worshiped here for years or are visiting our Episcopal Church for the first time, we are glad you are with us. We invite all to enter fully into worship and to explore the variety of learning, small group, and service opportunities that are part of our life together. To learn more, visit trinitychurchboston.org and click on New to Trinity, or contact Mark Kharas, at mkharas@trinitychurchboston.org, 617-536-0944 x372.

Youth-Led Forum: Lent and Life's Challenges

Sun., 3/10, 10:15 a.m., Forum

What do Trinity's youth have to teach you about Lent? How can the space of Lent help us clear our minds and work through life's challenges?

Price Lecture: Reincarnation and Universal Salvation in the Early Church

Sun., 3/10, 1-2:30 p.m., Forum

Charles M. Stang, Professor of Early Christian Thought, Director of the Center for the Study of World Religions, Harvard Divinity School, will offer us an introduction to Origen—the first great Christian theologian. Origen's 3rd century writings, while declared heretical in the sixth century, are being reclaimed by a new generation of scholars within the Episcopal Church and beyond.

White Fragility: Journaling and Discussion

Sun., 3/10, 12:30-1:30 p.m., Ferris Library

Due to ongoing interest, the Anti-Racism team will continue exploring Robin D'Angelo's book, White Fragility, through a chapter-by-chapter journaling project beginning on 3/10 with Chapters 1-3. Each meeting will begin with a prompt and attendees will be given time to reflect, write, and share their responses in order to go deeper on the subject. Reading and journaling for preparation encouraged, but not required. For more information, contact Janis Pryor, JPCamb@aol.com, or Linda Trum, lindatrum@gmail.com, with the subject line White Fragility.

Brewing Justice

Trinity has switched to Bishop's Blend Equal Exchange Coffee as of Feb. 24, as part of the Episcopal Relief & Development Fair Trade Project. By making this commitment, we are supporting the life-giving work of Episcopal Relief & Development to help heal a hurting world, while also providing a fair wage to the members of the small farming cooperatives that produce the coffee. For more info, visit episcopalrelief.org and watch the video at bit.ly/BrewingJustice

THIS WEEK

Choir to Sing "Bach in the Subways"

Sat., 3/16, 3:30 p.m., Boston Public Library Johnson Atrium

For the second time, the Trinity Choir will be participating in "Bach in the Subways," an international celebration of the great composer's March birthday. Accompanied by cello, bass and keyboard, the Choir will be singing Lobet den Herrn, alle Heiden, along with his "Come, sweet death." The concert will last less than 20 minutes, is FREE, and open to everyone.

Children's Homily and Childcare offered during 9 & 11:15 a.m. services. Childcare is available for infants and pre-schoolers in the Nursery located on the second floor of the Parish House in Tapestry Hall. Children in K-5th grades worship with their families; they may leave before the sermon for the Children's Homily and return at the Peace.

STEWARDSHIP

Thank You for Your Stewardship of Trinity Church!

Many thanks to all who have made their pledge commitment to Trinity Church for 2019!

Through the prayerful generosity of more than 645 households, we have reached 91% of our pledge goal. Please check the list of those who have pledged in the Undercroft to ensure your name is correct.

If you haven't pledged yet, help our new rector, the Rev. Morgan Allen, begin his ministry with a fully funded budget. You may make your pledge commitment via our secure website at trinitychurchboston.org/2019-annual-pledge or you may fill out a pledge card.
