

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16

at Trinity Church Boston, Copley Square
206 Clarendon Street, Boston, MA 02116

The Second Annual Anne Berry Bonnyman Symposium

OVERCOMING RACISM & INCOME INEQUITY IN OUR SCHOOLS: Moving Ahead Together

9 a.m. & 11:15 a.m. services

The Rev. Canon Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas
Canon Theologian, Washington National Cathedral
Guest Preacher

6 p.m. service

The Rev. Dorothea Littlepage
Director, Roxbury-Dorchester Mission Hub
Guest Preacher

10:15 a.m. forum

Perspectives from young leaders & former TEEP students

1 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. symposium

Dr. John H. Jackson

President & CEO, Schott Foundation for Public Education
Keynote Speaker

panel featuring

Dr. Tommy Chang
Superintendent, Boston Public Schools

Dr. Miren Uriarte, sociologist
& Boston School Committee member

Michael Patrick MacDonald activist & author of "All Souls"

Odette Williamson, consumer advocate
& parent of children in the Boston Public Schools

Moderated by Callie Crossley
Host, Under the Radar, WGBH 89.7 FM with Lovely Hoffman and the Hallelu Singers

Learn – Reflect – Take Action

The Anne Berry Bonnyman Symposium

Trinity's living platform for addressing systemic racism in our church and community.

trinitychurchboston.org/overcomingracism