Last Sunday after the Epiphany

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Anthem Christ upon the mountain peak

Webster

Christ upon the mountain peak stands alone in glory blazing;

Let us, if we dare to speak, with the saints and angels praise him. Alleluia!

Trembling at his feet we saw Moses and Elijah speaking.

All the prophets and the Law shout through them their joyful greeting. Alleluia!

Swift the cloud of glory came. God proclaiming in its thunder

Jesus as his Son by name! Nations cry aloud in wonder! Alleluia!

This is God's beloved Son! Law and prophets sing before him;

first and last and only One, let creation now adore him. Alleluia!

TEXT: BRIAN WREN (B. 1936)

Anthem Holy is the True Light

William H. Harris (1883-1973)

Holy is the True Light,

and passing wonderful,

lending radiance to them that endured

in the heat of the conflict.

From Christ they inherit

a home of unfading splendour, wherein they rejoice with gladness evermore.

Alleluia!

Anthem Beautiful Savior

Silesian folk tune, arr. F. Melius Christiansen (1871-1955)

Fair are the meadows, Fairer the woodlands,

Robed in flow'rs of blooming spring;

Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer,

He makes our sorrowing spirit sing.

Beautiful Savior! Lord of the nations!

Son of God and Son of Man!

Glory and honor, Praise, adoration,

Now and forevermore be Thine!

Anthem Christ whose glory fills the skies

T. Frederick Candlyn (1892-1964)

Christ, whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only Light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise!
Triumph o'er the shades of night:
Dayspring from on high, be near;
Daystar, in my heart appear.
Dark and cheerless is the morn
unaccompanied by thee;
joyless is the day's return,
till thy mercy's beams I see,
till they inward light impart,
glad my eyes, and warm my heart.
Visit then this soul of mine!
Pierce the gloom of sin and grief!
Fill me, radiance divine;
scatter all my unbelief;
more and more thyself display,
shining to the perfect day.

CHARLES WESLEY (1707-88); HYMN 7

Postlude

Tibi Christe, splendor Patris (from Triptych for Transfiguration)
The tune is that of Hymn 123.

Webster

Note on Choral Masses

At the 9 am Holy Eucharist during the season of Epiphany, the Ordinary (Gloria, Sanctus/Benedictus and Agnus Dei) are sung by the choir. This venerable tradition is maintained and nurtured in Anglican cathedrals and certain parish churches around the world. The practice invites a different, perhaps deeper participation by the congregation. While the choir sings, the worshippers' meditation on the words and how the composer has expressed them can invite new ways of engaging these ancient texts. Musical settings include:

Harold Darke Communion Service in F (mid-20th c.) on Jan. 7 & 28;
Richard Webster's Missa Dorica (Mass in the Dorian Mode, 1996) on Jan. 14 & Feb. 4; Philip Stopford's Keble Missa Brevis (1997) on Jan. 21; and Missa Brevis of Benjamin Britten (1959) on Feb. 11.

Congregational singing of the Ordinary will resume during Lent, with Richard Proulx's Missa Oecumenica, an adaptation of music from the Russian liturgy.

PRICE LECTURES

Adrian Walker on Boston. Racism. Image. Reality.

Sun., 2/25, 1-2:30 p.m., Church

Does Boston merit the title of “most racist city in America”? In December, the Boston Globe published a seven-part series on racism in Boston, exploring local private and public sector dynamics, as well as regional sports and education. Join Adrian Walker, Boston Globe columnist and a leading contributor to the series, for a discussion about its discoveries and view on moving forward—as well as a chance to ask questions. Our discussion will be moderated by Simone John of Trinity's Outreach staff.

#metoo and Christian Sexual Ethics

with Mark Jordan Sun., 3/11, 1-2:30 p.m., Church

How does our faith inform our being with each other in some of the most personal and vulnerable dimensions of our lives? For much of our collective memory, Christian sexual ethics have been dominated in the public sphere by discussions of abortion and same-sex relationships, yet our tradition has much more to say to 21st century Christians about how we are called to honor each other. In a session that welcomes all – married and single adults as well as families with teens – Professor Mark Jordan of Harvard Divinity School will provide an engaging introduction to the issues surrounding sexual ethics, identity and theology.

A Jewish Take on Jesus: Talking the Gospels

with Amy-Jill Levine Sun., 4/29, 1-2:30 p.m., Church

“You have a beautiful faith,” says Amy Jill Levine. “But you don't need to make Judaism look bad in order to make Christianity look good.” A self-described “Yankee Jewish feminist who teaches in a predominantly Christian divinity school in the buckle of the Bible Belt,” Levine is the author of many books, including the bestselling The Misunderstood Jew: The Church and the Scandal of the Jewish Jesus and The Meaning of the Bible: What the Jewish Scriptures and the Christian Old Testament Can Teach Us (co-authored with Douglas Knight). She is also the editor of The Jewish Annotated New Testament.

In this session, Levine will help us to understand Jesus and in the context of Jewish identity in ancient Palestine, as well as examine “2,000 years of misconceptions between Christians and Jews.”
