Welcome to the season after Pentecost at Trinity Church

We are so glad you are here to pray with us today. This booklet will be your guide for Sunday worship here through the summer. We are now in the longest liturgical season of the year: the time of the formation of the church. Having walked and prayed and sung—through the Advent of Jesus, the Epiphany manifestations of God in Christ, the penitential pilgrimage of preparation in Lent, the intensity of the Passion in Holy Week, and the joyous season of the mystery of the resurrection in Eastertide—we come now to the time where we, the Lord's people, are learning to be the body of Christ. At Trinity, we mark the liturgical seasons with predictable variations. For the summer, the congregation and summer choirs will speak the psalms and sing the Sanctus, Lord's Prayer, and Agnus Dei (which can be found on the back cover) together. And always, please sing the hymns with courage!

You'll find the psalms on the scripture insert, handed out each Sunday.

The hymns are found in the blue Hymnal.
Please stand and sing for all hymns.

The prayer for the Eucharist is found in the Book of Common Prayer.

The order of service and music selections for each Sunday may be found on the page for the day.

This booklet is designed to be reused each week.

Please leave it in the pew as you depart.

Music During the Offertory

*The offering received during the anthem is our opportunity to give of ourselves to the glory of God.
It supports our parish ministries and service to the community.*

10 AM

Anthem Te Deum from The Collegium Regale Service

Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
 All the earth doth worship thee; the Father everlasting.
 To thee all angels cry aloud' the Heavens and all the powers therein.
 To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry,
 Holy, Holy, Holy; Lord God of Sabaoth;
 Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.
 The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee.
 The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise thee.
 The noble army of Martyrs praise thee.
 The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee;
 The Father of an infinite Majesty;
 Thing honourable, true and only Son;
 Also the Holy Ghost: the Comforter.
 Thou art the King of Glory: O Christ.
 Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
 When thou took'st upon thee to deliver man: thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.
 When thou had'st overcome the sharpness of death: thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
 Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the Glory of the Father.
 We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
 We therefore pray thee, help thy servants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
 Make them to be numbered with thy Saints: in glory everlasting.
 O Lord, save thy people: and bless thine heritage.
 Govern them: and lift them up for e'er.
 Day by day we magnify thee;
 And we worship thy Name ever, world without end.
 Vouchsafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without sin.
 O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.
 O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us: as our trust is in thee.
 O Lord, in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

 and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young:
 even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.
 Blessed are they that dwell in they house:
 they will be alway praising thee.
 The glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us:
 prosper thou the work of our hands upon us.

Anthem Jesus Christ the Apple Tree
The tree of life my soul hath seen,
Laden with fruit, and always green:
The trees of nature fruitless be
Compared with Christ the apple tree.
His beauty doth all things excel:
By faith I know, but ne'er can tell
The glory which I now can see
In Jesus Christ the apple tree.
For happiness I long have sought,
And pleasure dearly I have bought:
I missed of all; but now I see
'Tis found in Christ the apple tree.

Elizabeth Poston (1905-1987)
I'm weary with my former toil,
Here I will sit and rest awhile:
Under the shadow I will be,
Of Jesus Christ the apple tree.
This fruit doth make my soul to thrive,
It keeps my dying faith alive;
Which makes my soul in haste to be
With Jesus Christ the apple tree.

C. Hubert H. Parry (1848-1918)

Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
forgive our foolish ways!
Reclothe us in our rightful mind,
in purer lives thy service find,
in deeper reverence, praise.
In simple trust like theirs who heard,
beside the Syrian sea,
the gracious calling of the Lord,
let us, like them, without a word,
rise up and follow thee.

Drop thy still dews of quietness,
till all our strivings cease;
take from our souls the strain and stress,
and let our ordered lives confess
the beauty of thy peace.
Breathe through the heats of our desire
thy coolness and thy balm;
let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still, small voice of calm.

Restoring Trinity's Nave Organ

Built in 1926 by the legendary organ builder Ernest. M. Skinner, the Trinity nave organ has undergone significant changes, unfortunately taking it far from its original concept and sound. An exciting project to restore its original splendor, majesty and warmth is slated for completion in 2019. To learn more or to join us in making this restoration possible, please contact Richard Webster rwebster@trinitychurchboston.org.
