

MORNING PRAYER

at Trinity Church Boston

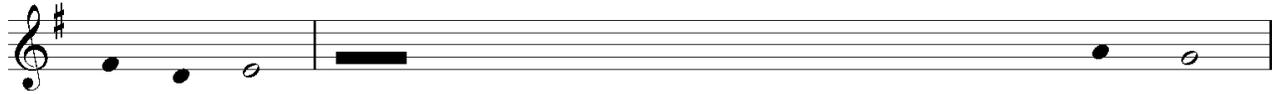

Season of Advent
December 9-23, 2018

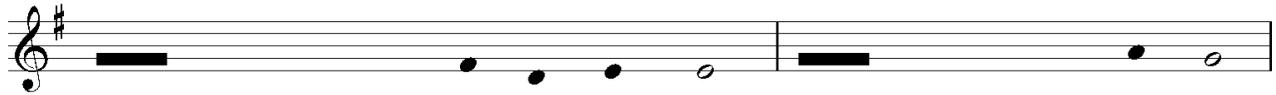

S-3: Venite

1. O come, let us sing unto the Lord; let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our sal - va - tion. 2. Let us come before his presence with thanks - giv - ing, and show ourselves glad in him with psalms. 3. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King a - bove all gods. 4. In his hand are all the corners of the earth, and the strength of the hills is his al - so. 5. The sea is his and he made it, and his hands prepared the dry land. 6. O come, let us worship and fall down and kneel before the Lord our Ma - ker. 7. For he is the Lord our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. 8. O worship the Lord in the beauty of ho - li - ness; let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

9. For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth, and with righteousness to judge

(Gloria Patri may be added)

the world and the peoples with his truth. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spi - rit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ev - er. A - men.

Welcome to the season of Advent at Trinity Church.

This booklet will be your guide for Sunday worship through December 23.

- The hymns are found in the blue Hymnal 1982. Please stand and sing all hymns.
- Service music is found on the inside front cover.
- The order of service and music selections for each Sunday may be found on the page for the day.
- At Trinity, we mark the liturgical seasons with suitable variations. For the Advent season, the congregation will say the Invitatory, Psalm, and Suffrages; we sing the Venite (see opposing page for music).

At certain times seasons seem to fail, and we begin to experience time in jumbled and senseless ways. We are sick of time, surfeited with haste without purpose and leisure without refreshment.

Into this bleak time comes a thin and piercing cry. It is the clear treble of a child in song; it is the stark and undefeated call of the prophet; it is the shocked wail of an infant feeling lungs fill with air for the first time. The call orients us: something new is about to begin. It is time for us to prepare. Let candles be lit and fresh green things be hung. Let us sweep out the clutter of our worn-out anxieties and threadbare resentments. Let us deck our selves in solemn joy. Let us meet together for prayer and worship, for these things especially orient us to the new rhythms of God's time coming, catapulting into being on Christmas morning.

As a hallmark of good stewardship of the earth and our resources, this booklet is designed to be reused each week.

Please return to an usher as you depart.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Matin Responsory for Advent

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (c. 1525-1594)

I look from afar: and lo, I see the power of God coming, and a cloud covering the whole earth.
Go ye out to meet him and say: Tell us, art thou he that should come to reign over thy people Israel?
High and low, rich and poor, one with another.

Opening Sentences

Confession & Absolution

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.
Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against thy holy laws,
we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done.
But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, spare thou those who confess their faults, restore thou those who are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord;
and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Invitatory & Psalter

O Lord, open thou our lips. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.
O God, make speed to save us. O Lord make haste to help us.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
Praise ye the Lord. The Lord's name be praised.
Our King and Savior now draweth nigh: O come, let us adore him.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me,
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him
throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel,
as he promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed for ever. Gloria Patri.
