HOLY EUCHARIST

SUNDAYS, JAN. 20-MARCH 3, 2019

- The hymns are found in the blue Hymnal 1982.

- The order of service and music selections for each Sunday may be found on the page for the day.
- At Trinity, we mark the liturgical seasons with suitable variations. For the Epiphany season, the congregation will sing a Gloria, Sanctus, Lord's Prayer, and Agnus Dei together. See back cover for music.
- Listening devices are available from an usher.

From the East come scholars, observers of the natural world, inheritors of an ancient written tradition. They bear the accumulated wisdom of the world's first great civilization. And now every civilization's work has come to fruition. They all see it. In a poor rural village, the savior of the world is born.

To the Jordan River comes John the Baptist. He tells the crowd to repent, to stir themselves. God is on the move, and the time is short. And suddenly a man steps forward whom they feel to be different from any they have known. His baptism is like a storm, like fire, like a flock of doves. They all see it. He is the one they have come seeking.

To the house of prayer come ordinary people of an ordinary town. They gather to hear the words their God spoke long ago. Then a man gets up and begins to speak, and the words of the prophets come to life in his mouth. They all see it. The story they are listening to—it is about them.

Epiphany is a season for noticing the signs of God on the move, in our time, in our place. Come with us and see.

As a hallmark of good stewardship of the earth and our resources, this booklet is designed to be reused each week.

Please return to an usher as you depart.

Dutch tune, harmonized by Charles Wood (1866-1926)

King Jesus hath a garden, full of divers flow'rs,
Where I go culling posies gay, all times and hours.

is Chastity: The Violet, with sweet perfume, Humility. Refrain
The bonny Damask-rose is known as Patience:
The blithe and thrifty Marygold, Obedience. Refrain
The Crown Imperial bloometh too in yonder place,
'Tis Charity, of stock divine, the flower of grace. Refrain
Yet 'mid the brave, the bravest prize of all may claim
The Star of Bethlem— Jesus – blessed be his Name! Refrain

Ah! Jesu Lord, my heal and weal, my bliss complete,
 Make thou my heart thy garden-plot, fair, trim and neat.

Anthem

Edward Elgar (1857-1934)

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations – as the earth bringeth forth her bud. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel.

Anthem

George Frideric Handel (1685-1759)

Lord, I trust thee, I adore thee.
Ah! thou friend of man, restore me!
On thy loving grace relying,
For the bread of life I'm sighing.

Quench my thirst and let my hunger cease,
Fill my heart with joy and endless peace.
When the breath of life has left me,
May my soul be blended with thee.

TEXT: BARTHOLD HEINRICH BROCKES, TR. JOHN TROUTBECK

11:15 AM

Anthem

Edward Bairstow (1874-1946)

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; And though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Bearth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease;
 whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: Now
 I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now abideth faith, hope and charity, but the greatest of these is charity.

O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heav'nly frame;
A light to shine upon the road

Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.
So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Postlude Fugue from Sonata on the 94th Psalm

Julius Reubke (1834-1858)

On Today's Music

Julius Reubke (1834-1858), German pianist, organist and composer, born into a family of organbuilders, lived to be only 24 years old. Though his life was short, he produced two spectacular, major works. His piano sonata in B Minor and today's postlude – the last of three movements from his Sonata on the 94th Psalm in C Minor for organ – are considered pinnacles of the Romantic keyboard repertoire. As a “symphonic poem”, the final movement of Reubke's organ sonata is a turbulent, agitated, furious fugue, culminating in a massive ending that depicts divine judgement, as found in Psalm 94: 22-23. “But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the strength of confidence. He shall recompense them their wickedness, and destroy them in their own malice.”

Anthem Greater love

John Ireland (1879-1962)

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it.

Love is strong as death. Greater love hath no man than this:

That a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own Self bare our sins in His own body on the tree,

That we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified

In the Name of the Lord Jesus.

Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation,

That ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you

Out of darkness into His marvelous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God,

That ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God,

Which is your reasonable service.

Anthem Music past silence

Andrew Fletcher (b. 1950)

Into the house of God, all furnished here with gilded effigy and painted light, we bring our heartfelt song the pale reflection of his great love; praise upon praises piling like gathered waves, their cliff-hung waters' weight the very force to mount them heavenward, in singing spray, to that most perfect house where praise to soundless harmony resolves, music past silence stretching up to God.

Anthem The Father's Love

Simon Lole (b. 1957)

As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Remain in my love. This is my commandment: that you love one another, as I have loved you. God is love, and those who live in love live in God, and God lives in them. If you keep my commandments and love one another as I have loved you, then your joy will be complete.

Anthem Geistliches Lied

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

*Lass dich nur nichts nicht dauren mit Trauren, sei stille, wie Gott es fügt, so sei vergnügt mein Wille!
Was willst du heute sorgen auf Morgen? Der Eine steht allem für, der gibt auch dir das Deine.
Sei nur in allem Handel ohn' Wandel, steh' feste, was Gott beschleusst,
das ist und heisst das Beste. Amen.*

Let no sad thought oppress or distress you. Be still, my soul, and delight in the ways of God!
Why worry today about tomorrow?
The all-providing One will see
to your portion.
Be steadfast in all your doings,
wandering not away from God's designs,
the best and most trustworthy. Amen.

Sing joyfully unto God our strength. Sing loud unto the God of Jacob.

 For this was made a statute for Israel and a law of the God of Jacob.

Anthem

Edward Bairstow (1874-1946)

Lord, thou hast been our refuge from one generation to another.
 Before the mountains were brought forth or ever the earth and the world were made, thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.
 Lord, what is man, that thou hast such respect unto him; or the son of man, that thou so regardest him?
 Man is like a thing of nought: his time passeth away like a shadow, but thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever, and thy remembrance throughout all generations.
 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion, yea the time is come that thou have mercy.
 Comfort us again, now after the time that thou hast plagued us; and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity. Amen.

Statement of Affirmation Trinity Church in the City of Boston is a congregation of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts and welcomes and honors everyone. In accordance with our baptismal covenant, we affirm the inherent worth and dignity of every person. We strive to include all persons without regard to sexual orientation, race, nationality, gender, family configuration, ethnic background, economic circumstances, difference in ability, culture, or age. Our love and acceptance of each other embody our commitment to unity with God and each other in Christ.

The Lord Almighty grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end. Amen.

Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
The maker of heaven and earth.

O God, make speed to save us.
O Lord, make haste to help us.

*Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever.
Amen. Alleluia.*

Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit;
Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit;
For you have redeemed me, O Lord, O God of truth.
Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit;

Keep us, O Lord, as the apple of your eye;
Hide us under the shadow of your wings.

Lord, hear our prayer;
And let our cry come to you.

Let us pray.

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake. Amen.

Guide us waking, O Lord, and guard us sleeping; that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

*Nunc dimittis seruum tuum, Domine Secundum verbum tuum in pace:
Quia viderunt oculi mei salutare tuum Quod parasti ante faciem omnium populorum:
Lumen ad revelationem gentium, Et gloriam plebis tuae Israel.
Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto,
Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.*

Guide us waking, O Lord, and guard us sleeping; that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.

Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The almighty and merciful Lord, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bless us and keep us. Amen.
