WELCOME

Dear Trinity Church parish & friends,

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

For nearly 300 years, the Good News has been proclaimed – in deed, as in word – by members of this fellowship, and, since 1877, the mysteries of our God have been prayed at this altar with joy and wonder. Whether you are returning to church after a time away or are altogether new to the faith; whether you are a lifelong Trinity parishioner, looking for a new faith home, or simply seeking a place to celebrate this season; on behalf of these here gathered and all those who have come before us, we welcome you to Trinity Church in the City of Boston.

If you are interested in learning more about joining our community, we invite you to fill out a welcome card (located in the pew rack before you) and set it in the offering plate. We will then look forward to connecting with you this week.

If you are a pilgrim passing through our city, please consider learning more about this remarkable home of our worship and return for the free guided tour offered every regular Sunday, starting at the Eagle Lectern (front, right) immediately following the last service of the morning.

As the risen Christ makes all things new, trust that you are always welcome here. May you and yours know that you are loved, this and every day.

The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

The Rev. Morgan S. Allen,
Rector

ABOUT EASTERTIDE

When we are very small, we do not grow tired of stories. We want to hear them again, and yet again, until our carers groan and roll their eyes. But our small selves hunger to be inside the story, to become, through hearing it, at one with it.

This is what we do as Christians: we tell each other the story, again and yet again. “Christ is risen!” we tell each other. But we do not see this every day. The daffodils bloom for a week or two, then die; the tulips follow in their turn. For us, as for them, there is no shortcut through decay and death.

How shall we know this truth so foolish that it shames the wise? Christ lives, and so shall we! God’s will toward fruitfulness and flourishing cannot be checked by any powers that exist! It is a truth so grand, we cannot hold onto or understand it. All we can do—and what we must do—is tell one another, over and over, until it makes its way into our very marrow: The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

William H. Harris (1883-1973)

Most glorious Lord of life, that on this day
 Didst make thy triumph over death and sin,
 And having harrowed hell, didst bring away
 Captivity thence captive, us to win;
 This joyous day, dear Lord, with joy begin,
 And grant that we for whom thou didst die;
 Being with thy dear Blood clean washed from sin,
 May live forever in felicity:
 And that thy love we weighing worthily,
 May likewise love thee for the same again;
 And for thy sake, that all like dear didst buy,
 With love may one another entertain.
 So let us love, dear Love, like as we ought;
 Love is the lesson which the Lord us taught.

Anthem

Little Lamb, who made thee?
Dost thou know who made thee?
Gave thee life, and bid thee feed
By the stream and o'er the mead;
Gave thee clothing of delight,
Softest clothing, woolly, bright;
Gave thee such a tender voice,
Making all the vales rejoice?
Little Lamb, who made thee?
Dost thou know who made thee?

John Tavener (1944-2013)

Little Lamb, I'll tell thee,
Little Lamb, I'll tell thee,
He is called by thy name,
For he calls himself a Lamb.
He is meek, and he is mild;
He became a little child.
I, a child, and thou a lamb,
We are called by his name.
Little Lamb, God bless thee!
Little Lamb, God bless thee!

Anthem

Edgar Bainton (1880-1956)

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away.

Anthem

C. Hubert H. Parry (1880-1956)

My soul, there is a country far beyond the stars,
Where stands a winged sentry, All skillful in the wars:
There, above noise and danger, Sweet Peace sits crowned with smiles,
And One, born in a manger, Commands the beauteous files.
He is thy gracious friend, And O my soul awake!
Did in pure love descend To die here for thy sake.
If thou canst get but thither, There grows the flower of Peace,
The Rose that cannot wither, Thy fortress, and thy ease.

Leave then thy foolish ranges, For none can thee secure
But one who never changes, Thy God, thy life, thy cure.

Anthem

Henry Purcell (1659-1695)

O God, thou art my God: eagerly will I seek thee.
My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee in a barren and dry land where no water is.
Thus have I look'd for thee, in holiness, that I might behold thy pow'r and glory.
For thy loving kindness is better than life itself: my lips shall praise thee.
As long as I live will I magnify thee on this manner and lift up my hands in thy Name.
Because thou hast been my helper,
therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
Here vouchsafe to all thy servants what they ask of thee to gain;
what they gain from thee, for ever with the blessed to retain,
and hereafter in thy glory evermore with thee to reign.

Make me to go in the path of thy commandments: for therein is my desire.

Anthem Jesus Christ the apple tree

The tree of life my soul hath seen,
Laden with fruit, and always green:
The trees of nature fruitless be
Compared with Christ the apple tree.

His beauty doth all things excel:
By faith I know, but ne'er can tell
The glory which I now can see
In Jesus Christ the apple tree.

For happiness I long have sought,
And pleasure dearly I have bought:
I missed of all; but now I see
'Tis found in Christ the apple tree.

Elizabeth Poston (1905-1987)

I'm weary with my former toil,
Here I will sit and rest awhile:
Under the shadow I will be,
Of Jesus Christ the apple tree.

This fruit doth make my soul to thrive,
It keeps my dying faith alive;
Which makes my soul in haste to be
With Jesus Christ the apple tree.

And drove thee from my breast.

Henry Purcell (1659-1695)

O God, the King of glory, which hast exalted thy only son Jesus Christ and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before;

who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end now and evermore. Amen.

The Lord Almighty grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end. Amen.

Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
The maker of heaven and earth.

O God, make speed to save us.
O Lord, make haste to help us.

*Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever.
Amen.*

Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit;
Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit;
For you have redeemed me, O Lord, O God of truth.
Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit;

Keep us, O Lord, as the apple of your eye;
Hide us under the shadow of your wings.

Lord, hear our prayer;
And let our cry come to you.
Let us pray.

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake. Amen.

Guide us waking, O Lord, and guard us sleeping; that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

*Nunc dimittis servum tuum, Domine Secundum verbum tuum in pace:
Quia viderunt oculi mei salutare tuum quod parasti ante faciem omnium populorum:
Lumen ad revelationem gentium, et gloriam plebis tuae Israel.
Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto,
Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.*

Guide us waking, O Lord, and guard us sleeping; that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.

Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The almighty and merciful Lord, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bless us and keep us. Amen.
