trinity church in the city of boston

WELCOME

Dear Trinity Church parish & friends,

For nearly 300 years, the Good News has been proclaimed – in deed, as in word – by members of this fellowship, and, since 1877, the mysteries of our God have been prayed at this altar with joy and wonder. Whether you are returning to church after a time away or are altogether new to the faith; whether you are a lifelong Trinity parishioner, looking for a new faith home, or simply seeking a place to celebrate this season; on behalf of these here gathered and all those who have come before us, we welcome you to Trinity Church in the City of Boston.

If you are interested in learning more about joining our community, we invite you to fill out a welcome card (located in the pew rack before you) and set it in the offering plate. We will then look forward to connecting with you this week.

If you are a pilgrim passing through our city, please consider learning more about this remarkable home of our worship and return for the free guided tour offered every regular Sunday, starting at the Eagle Lectern (front, right) immediately following the last service of the morning.

As the risen Christ makes all things new, trust that you are always welcome here. May you and yours know that you are loved, this and every day.

The Rev. Morgan S. Allen,
Rector

This booklet is designed to be reused each week.
Please leave it in the pew as you depart.

We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving,
and into his courts with praise:
Be thankful unto him and speak good of his name.
For the Lord is gracious,
his mercy is everlasting:
and His truth endureth from generation to generation.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world with out end. Amen.

Anthem

Edward C. Bairstow (1874-1946)

Lord, thou hast been our refuge from one generation to another.
Before the mountains were brought forth or ever the earth and the world were made, thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.
Lord, what is man, that thou hast such respect unto him; or the son of man, that thou so regardest him?
Man is like a thing of nought: his time passeth away like a shadow, but thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever, and thy remembrance throughout all generations.
Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion, yea the time is come that thou have mercy.
Comfort us again, now after the time that thou hast plagued us; and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity. Amen.

Anthem

Richard Webster, 2016

One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require;
even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,
to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.
For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle;
yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me,
and set me up upon a rock of stone.
And now shall he lift up mine head
above mine enemies round about me.
Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness;
I will sing, and speak praises unto the Lord.

Anthem

Georg Frideric Handel (1685-1759)

Lord, I trust thee, I adore thee.
Ah! thou friend of man, restore me!

Fill my heart with joy and endless peace.
When the breath of life has left me,
May my soul be blended with thee.

Anthem Daniel, Daniel

Undine Smith Moore (1904-1989)

Oh, the king cried,
"Oh! Daniel, Daniel, oh!
Daniel, Daniel, oh!
Oh that Hebrew Daniel
Servant of the Lord!"
Among the Hebrew nation
One Hebrew, Daniel was found.
They put him in the lion's den.
He stayed there all night long.
Now the king in his sleep was troubled,
And early in the morning he rose,
To find God had sent his angel down
To lock the lion's jaws.

Anthem Be seated.

C.H.H. Parry (1848-1918)

Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
 forgive our foolish ways!
 Reclothe us in our rightful mind,
 in purer lives thy service find,
 in deeper reverence, praise.
 In simple trust like theirs who heard,
 beside the Syrian sea,
 the gracious calling of the Lord,
 let us, like them, without a word,
 rise up and follow thee.
 Drop thy still dews of quietness,
 till all our strivings cease;
 take from our souls the strain and stress,
 and let our ordered lives confess
 the beauty of thy peace.
 Breathe through the heats of our desire
 thy coolness and thy balm;
 let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
 speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
 O still, small voice of calm.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace,
Whose mind is stayed on Thee.
The darkness is no darkness with Thee,
But the night is as clear as the day.
The darkness and the light to Thee are both alike.
God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all.
O let my soul live, and it shall praise Thee.
For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
For evermore.
Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace,
Whose mind is stayed on Thee.
